PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Wendy Fassberg brings to the mediation and arbitration arenas over 35 years of experience as a real estate, construction, and business litigator, as well as a transactional practitioner in these specialties. She also owned and operated a property management company for many years and she has been a licensed real estate broker for over 20 years. She has dealt with a very broad range of real estate matters, both commercial and residential, and she has been involved on multiple levels, and from all sides, with the purchase and sale of real property, development, construction, and property management for commercial projects, single family housing, multi-family housing, as well as common interest developments and homeowner associations. Wendy is the former Chair and continues to be a Commissioner on the Calabasas Planning Commission, and has sat on numerous governing and advisory boards and committees, as well as on multiple homeowner association boards and committees. Wendy is also a Judge at the U.C.L.A. Annual Mock Trial Tournament, and has judged both the Regional Finals and the National Championships of that Tournament, as well as being a Negotiation Coach for the Straus Institute Women’s Negotiation Academy. Wendy has also provided training, both individually and as a program presenter, for mediators entering the landlord/tenant, unlawful detainer field.
